

Jeb Dunnuck Scores: Patricia Green Cellars

Vin.	Wine	●	Rating	$	☆
2023	Patricia Green Cellars Sauvignon Blanc		91	$25	☆
The silver/straw-colored 2023 Sauvignon Blanc is perfumed and expressive with notes of salted grapefruit, tropical flowers, candied citrus, ripe peaches, and fresh dewy earth. Medium-bodied, it's juicy and pretty, with ripe acidity and a clean finish. It's a lovely and elegant Sauvignon Blanc to enjoy over the next 2-4 years.
2023	Patricia Green Cellars Sauvignon Blanc Estate Vineyard		93	$35	☆
Fermented and aged in acacia puncheon barrels, the 2023 Sauvignon Blanc Estate Vineyard comes from the oldest Sauvignon Blanc vines in the Willamette Valley. Silver/straw-colored, it opens to very detailed and elegant tropical notes of fresh guava, basil, preserved citrus, and pretty flowers. Medium-bodied, with a delicate, rounded feel, it's energetic and very pretty, with mouthwatering, salty, fresh acidity and a perfumed finish. It's elegant and remains refreshing. Drink over the next 5-6 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Anderson Family Vineyard		95	$55	☆
The last year for this cuvée, the 2022 Pinot Noir Anderson Family Vineyard pours a bright medium red color and is very pretty on the nose, with ripe wild raspberries, candied flowers, sweet herbs, and a hint of leather. Medium-bodied, it carries lovely intensity and extract on the palate, with a very pure and linear feel that's focused and lovely. Offering a lot of vibrant, ripe, crunchy fresh fruit, it's a highly pleasurable wine to drink over the next 10 or more years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Balcombe Vineyard		96	$60	☆
The 2022 Pinot Noir Balcombe Vineyard is a bright magenta/ruby hue and reveals notes of darker baking spices, cardamom, a fresh floral perfume, and black raspberries. It's highly elegant on the palate, with seamless, supple tannins, ripe acidity, and harmony all the way through. A quintessential Dundee Hills red, it's approachable now but will have a wide drinking window over the coming 10-15 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Balcombe Vineyard Block 18		96	$75	☆
A jeweled red hue, the 2022 Pinot Noir Balcombe Vineyard Block 18 has a bit more high-toned spice coming through over the darker pure fruit and is a touch more introspective in character, with a slightly more savory profile including darker cherries. The wine has a good deal of intensity and a more noble structure, with a sanguine, lightly gamey earth note through the finish. Drink 2026-2040.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Bearwallow Vineyard		95	NA	☆

Vin.	Wine	Rating	$	☆
	The defining wine of 2022, coming from the Anderson Valley in California, the 2022 Pinot Noir Bearwallow Vineyard is a bright ruby color and is lifted with savory fresh herbs, pine, conifer spices, pomegranate, rhubarb, and spiced orange peel. Bright and linear, it's energetic and focused, with citrus drive on the palate, fine tannins, and a clean, zesty finish. It's refreshing and vibrant but has a lot to offer. Drink 2024-2037.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Chehalem Mountain Vineyard	94	$37	☆
	Jeweled ruby/magenta in color, the 2022 Pinot Noir Chehalem Mountain Vineyard is perfumed and floral on the nose, with fresh notes of ripe black raspberries, violets, sweet sage, fresh earth, and a hint of umami. The palate has a lot of purity and a crystalline, ripe feel, with a hint of delicate richness coming through. More red-fruited than the 2021, the inclusion of some Calera and Dijon clones gives it its textural component, and it has ripe tannins and a long finish. Drink 2025-2040.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Chehalem Mountain Vineyard Wadensvil Clone	95	$48	☆
	Coming from the steeper site of the vineyard, the 2022 Pinot Noir Chehalem Mountain Vineyard Wadensvil Clone is a jeweled ruby hue and is expressive in the glass, with notes of rocky earth, ripe raspberries, pretty spice, wildflowers, saline, and mushroomy earth. It has a chiseled structure and persistent length, with its red fruit shining through. Drink 2026-2040.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Corrine Vineyard Anklebreaker Block	97	$60	☆
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Corrine Vineyard Anklebreaker Block is a deeper ruby hue and reveals a savory umami tone, with hints of porcini, dark berries, rocky earth, and forest earth. Medium-bodied, it fills the palate with vibrant energy and fresh, mouthwatering acidity and structure. It's a fantastic wine with a lot of complexity. Drink it over the coming 15 or more years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Corrine Vineyard Wadensvil Block	97+	$55	☆
	A youthful ruby/magenta wine from 32-year-old vines, the 2022 Pinot Noir Corrine Vineyard Wadensvil Block offers aromas of dark stones, wild herbs, and brambly black raspberries. It has a good deal of intensity on the palate, with a medium frame, great energy, and a fantastic crystalline feel. It's a stunning wine. Unfortunately, the vineyard has phylloxera and has to be replanted, but boy, this is one to get a hold of while it's here. A next-level red from Patricia Green, I want to snatch up a bunch of this. Drink 2025-2045.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Coulee Vineyard	94	$45	☆

Vin.	Wine	Rating	$	☆
	Once coming from the old Hope Well Vineyard before they gave it to Bledsoe, the 2022 Pinot Noir Coulee Vineyard is a rich ruby hue and is expressive of preserved cherries, rosemary, and forest floor. Medium to full-bodied, it expands on the palate and is more broadly shouldered, with chalky, grained tannins and a long, savory finish with a bit of toast. It's a more robust wine in terms of its structure but remains well-balanced. Drink 2025-2037.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Durant Vineyard Bishop Creek	97	$55	★
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Durant Vineyard Bishop Creek is bright red, pristine, and pure, with vibrant ripe red fruit, refined spices, and sweet herbs that really take things up a gear or two. Medium-bodied, it has great energy, with a crystalline and mouthwatering feel. This is an exceptional wine from Patricia Green Cellars, and it's going to age with ease, but has a really great feel now.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Durant Vineyard Madrone Block	94	$45	★
	Juicy and offering more immediacy, the 2022 Pinot Noir Durant Vineyard Madrone Block is a ruby hue and offers pretty notes of supple, ripe cherry fruit, forest floor, and a hint of violet perfume coming through. It feels generous on the palate, with a delicate, rounded midpalate and a very appealing, weightless feel.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Estate Vineyard Old Vine	95	$45	★
	A killer value, the bright red 2022 Pinot Noir Estate Vineyard Old Vine boasts a highly complex and layered nose of spiced cherries, lifted spice, rose petal perfume, iron-rich earth, and hibiscus. Medium-bodied and tension-packed at this stage, it's linear and coiled with great energy. Long on the palate, it's a ton of wine for the price. It's going to be worth holding onto and drinking over the next 10-15 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard	93	$37	★
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard pours a vibrant ruby/magenta color and is highly expressive in the glass, with notes of framboise, candied roses, sweet herbs, and fresh earth. It's vibrant and energetic on the palate, with a ripe but more linear feel, finely coiled tannins, and a tapered finish. Drink it over the next 10 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Coury Clone	96	$75	★
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Coury Clone is a bright transparent red hue and is forward in the glass with cascading notes of baking spice, bergamot, Asian spices, a hint of violets, and mixed berries. It feels lightweight upfront, but it has real tension in its underlying coiled tannins, while on the back palate, it has fantastic mineral drive. It should age with ease over the long haul and expand with time. Drink 2025-2040.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Dijon 115 Clone	94	$55	★

Vin.	Wine	Rating	$	☆
	Bright ruby-colored, the 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Dijon 115 Clone comes from vines planted in 1982 and offers notes of sweet sage, black raspberries, fresh mossy earth, and a sweet cedar spice. The palate is electric in its energy and fills the palate and expands it, with very fine tannins and notes of cranberry. It's a lovely wine that I find very appealing now, and it's going to age with ease over the next 12 or so years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Perspicacious Cuvee	98	$150	★
	A winemaker's wine, the 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Perspicacious Cuvee shows off notes of ripe wild raspberries, strawberries, herbes de Provence, and rocky earth. It fills the palate with ripe tannins and has a lush but weightless texture, with a very high level of refinement and finesse. It's long on the palate and going to only improve with time. A seamless and fantastic red, drink it over the next 20 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Pommard	97	$55	★
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Pommard pours a jeweled ruby color and is aromatic of preserved red cherries, pristine spice, floral perfume, and a lot of clarity. It saturates the palate with ripe, vibrant energy and a long, long finish. It's full of life but fully ripe and exceptionally balanced, with an angular feel. It is going to need another couple of years, but it's wonderful. Drink 2026-2046.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Wadensvil Clone	95+	$55	★
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard Wadensvil Clone has a spicier nose of pine resin and is lifted and bright on the palate. More linear and focused, it's tension-packed with coiled acidity and persistent drive throughout the palate, as well as more citrus. It's going to age well and deserves another couple of years in the cellar.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir La Belle Promenade Vineyard	95	$55	★
	From a biodynamically farmed vineyard, the 2022 Pinot Noir La Belle Promenade Vineyard is a bright ruby/magenta hue and takes on more depth on the nose, with black raspberries, grenadine, a hint of purple flowers, fresh earth, and a touch of rosemary. A lovely, seamless wine, with a plush tannin structure, even acidity, a very supple texture, and a floating finish with a lightly salty, mineral iron tone, it feels more approachable now but should have a wide drinking window. Drink 2024-2038.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir La Belle Promenade Vineyard Ghost Barn Block	96	$75	★
	A new wine in the range, the 2022 Pinot Noir La Belle Promenade Vineyard Ghost Barn Block is a bright red hue and has lifted notes of spice, potpourri, incense, and wild mixed berries. It has a more chiseled structure and a ripe, very appealing texture, and its ripe kiss of sweet fruit is seamless and long. Drink 2025-2040.

2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Mysterious Arcus Vineyard		98	$100	☆
This seems to be the last vintage for the 2022 Pinot Noir Mysterious Arcus Vineyard, which is profound and gains intensity on the nose, with notes of toasted cedar, ripe cherries, pie spices, and crushed pine needles. Pure and fresh, it feels more noble on the nose, but there is great electric energy on the palate, with ripe fruit and a long, mouthwatering, salty finish. I love the crunchy, angular feel of this wine, and it has a lot going on. Drink 2026–2046.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Notorious		97	$85	☆
The Notorious cuvée is always aged entirely in new barrels, but it doesn't wear it, absorbing the oak with ease. The 2022 Pinot Noir Notorious boasts ripe wild raspberry and kirsch, as well as sweet spices, forest earth, and ripe fruit. It has fantastic ripeness and depth, with a long, lightly savory finish. It's a really mouthwatering red, but it has that rounded richness that wraps around it. Drink 2026–2046.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Reserve		93	NA	☆
The bright ruby 2022 Pinot Noir Reserve is floral and pretty on the nose, with lots of fresh flowers, grenadine, a fine spice, and dusty earth. Medium-bodied, it fills the palate with a plush, ripe tannins, even acidity, and a light savory finish with delicate notes of tea leaf. It's approachable now but is going to drink well over the coming 8–10 years. I like the savory note that comes through on the finish as well as the sweet ripe fruit.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Ridgecrest Vineyard		98	$60	☆
The 2022 Pinot Noir Ridgecrest Vineyard is focused and crystalline with notes of cherries, cinnamon, woody spice. Entirely destemmed, it's medium-bodied and has a vibrant and mouthwatering feel, with salty earth, well-defined tannins, and a hint of orange citrus. It has a great level of intensity all the way though and demands time in bottle. Drink it over the next 15 or more years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Volcanic		92	$48	☆
The 2022 Pinot Noir Volcanic is a bright amalgamation of all the Dundee hills sites and is approachable and pure with a delicate, rosy perfume of juicy, ripe mixed berry fruit with refreshing mineral undertones. It's elegant and charming, with ultra-fine tannins, even freshness, and a clean, savory finish. Drink it over the next 5–7 years.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Weber Vineyard		95	$60	☆

Vin.	Wine		Rating	$
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Weber Vineyard comes from vines planted in 1983 and takes a youthful red color with a light haze. More lifted and slightly feral herbal spice lifts from the glass along with notes of fresh red flowers and fresh herbs. It's linear, lifted, and refreshing on the palate and has a pastoral feel, with fine tannins and a note of dewy fresh earth. It's drinking beautifully now and will drink well over the coming 10-12 years. I really love the freshness of this.
2022	Patricia Green Cellars Pinot Noir Wind Ridge Vineyard		97	$60
	The 2022 Pinot Noir Wind Ridge Vineyard is a pretty ruby hue in the glass and lifts with very pretty notes of wild fresh berries, grenadine, candied flowers, and lifted spice. It's rounded and juicy on the palate, and use of whole cluster adds a lifted level of spice to keep this wine structured. With ripe tannins and a gravelly texture, this very appealing wine is going to improve with another year. Drink over the next 10-15 years.
